Gainesville and vicinity needs a wetting rain.

A dollar will pay for this paper until after next year's election.

The Levy Times-Democrat don't want Congress-man Davis to be governor.

Brother Jordan, of the Punta Gorda Herald, is certainly a very "punny pheller."

There is a man in Chicago named Damrich, and yet the Chipley Banner affirms he is a poor man.

It seems that Bob McNamee has about decided to decide not to decide to be a candidate for congressional honors.

The Brooksville Star and the Live Oak Crescent are supporting Governor Jennings for the United States Senate.

The Birmingham Ledger says it is now disloyal in Alabama for a white Republican to say he is proud of being a white man.

The Bartow Courier Informant says Tampa editors are seeing monkeys, and it presumes it must come from living in a wet town.

With the large number of candidates now out for Congress, it can very readily be seen that the plurality rule in the primary wouldn't do at all.

The Cuban vote in Florida will doubtless be solid for Broward governor, and in Hillsborough county the vote will be right considerable.

The fellow who knows he has done wrong, and yet meets a gentle reproach with an "I don't care," is not apt to amount to much in this old world.

The New Yorker who sold one of his ears to be grafted to a one-eared millionaire's head, got $5,000 for the little flap, but he certainly ear(ned) the money.

Where a man sows oats he does not expect to reap wheat; and why should anyone sow rowdiness and disregard for human life and expect to reap peace, happiness and safety?

None of the candidates should allow themselves to get so hot during the campaign that they will crack while cooling after the result of next year's primary becomes known.

An exchange says a farmer placed an ad in the local paper for two boys, and the next day his good wife gave birth to twins—and they were both boys. It pays to advertise.

Many Northern tourists will learn something about Florida politics this winter. We don't know but what Hanna and Roosevelt might get a few pointers down here right about now.

What good can come of so much fusing about the way Miss Roosevelt rides? If the boys don't like to be imitated by the president's daughter why don't they adopt the side saddle?

According to the Volusia County Record, Jno. B. Stetson has expended $150,000 at DeLand this year. These thousands put in circulation there was a great thing for the people of that little city.

When a woman says her husband is a brute, you would better not speak uncomplimentary of that husband in her presence, for some women seem to be very fond of certain kinds of brutes—of pet dogs, for instance.

And now the editor of the Lake City Index is "doin' up" Dr. Parkhurst, of New York. The Doctor should be very careful about uttering expressions displeasing to Editor Appleyard; i. e., if the Doctor don't want to be put out of business by the Lake City editor.

IS CATCHING ON.

The Gainesville Star tells us that the time to pluck fruit is when it is ripe, and when that time comes most any old man can do the plucking; but the Indian war claim happened to ripen during the tenure of our present delegation in the national congress and they plucked the fruit, just to keep it from spoiling, as it were. This elucidation of the matter is all very clear and the incident should now be considered closed until after the campaign is over, anyway. Of course, some irreverent horticulturist may be moved to the observation that it took the dickens of a time for the fruit to ripen, but if there be such a profaner among us he should be cast into utter darkness for daring to lay the charge of slothfulness at the feet of wondrous and beautiful nature. As a matter of fact it required less than two generations for this luscious fruit to ripen. Indeed, it reached perfection in its 54th year, and that isn't long to wait when one has become accustomed to waiting.—Starke Telegraph.

The Telegraph is not very accurate when quoting from THE STAR, but comes close enough to the truth to show that Brother Matthews is catching on.

GREAT MAGNANIMITY.

If Senator Taliaferro has been misrepresented in this matter, we shall be pleased to set him straight before our readers.—Gainesville Star, November 11.

The Star is very kind and magnanimous. It published Mr. Stetson's charges that Taliaferro had grown rich from railroad rebates, had opposed the primary system and committed other grave and unpardonable offenses; and when these charges were shown to be utterly baseless, the Star, with its accustomed civility, came out and—unfortunately, The Herald failed to receive the copy of the Star in which it was "pleased to set Mr. Taliaferro straight before its readers."—Punta Gorda Herald, Nov. 20.

But—but—unfortunately, THE STAR failed to receive the copy of the Herald, or any other paper, in which the charges against Senator Taliaferro "were shown to be utterly baseless;" and if there is a copy of any paper giving such information lying about loose in the Herald office—or anywhere else—we will thank the Punta Gorda editor to send it to us.

Lake City and Live Oak are supposed to be "dry" towns, but the Madison Enterprise says many filled jugs and bottles are daily shipped from there to the above towns—Metropolis.

It has been so long since we had bar rooms in Live Oak that we can not estimate the difference in the quantity of "booze" consumed then and now. Of course a few jugs are shipped to Live Oak, but not a single drop of their contents are for sale here. There may be a few here who get these jugs rather frequently, but being as dry as Live Oak is, it is far superior to any open saloon or dispensary ever tried. We do not know the conditions in Lake City, but we do know that being dry like Live Oak, is no "farce."—Live Oak Democrat.

Will some brother editor please tell us how we can secure the "Gainesville News" as an exchange? Brother McBeath, of the Florida School Exponent, and others of our exchanges frequently credit quotations to "The Gainesville News," and the quotations are so similar to matter we sometimes publish in THE STAR, that we would like to exchange with the "News," but we can't locate it. Nothing very strange, however, about that, in a city as large as Gainesville is.

It's just a little "remusing" to note how some papers published in wet towns try to make the public believe that every "dry" town is over run with blind tigers. The law against selling liquor is not obeyed perfectly, nor is the law against murder, but a great deal of the stuff we read in some papers about blind tigers is as false as a store-bought nest egg.

School teachers and lesson hearers are two, and altogether different things. The teacher is a good thing and should be well paid for his or her service, but he or she who is only a lesson hearer is a clog in the wheels of educational progress, and should be retired. Fortunately Alachua county is blessed with "teachers."

If for every column of matter that has been published in Florida newspapers during the past two years advocating hard roads we had a yard of hard road, we would be in a better fix for roads than we are, but the roads we Florida editors have been building on a medium grade of newspaper are not very hard ones.

We venture the assertion that Bradford county has not received enough liquor license money during the last past fifteen years to defray the expenses to the county of prosecuting the crimes caused by drunkenness in that county during the last past fifteen weeks. We mean no reflection on Bradford county, but on the damnable liquor traffic. We sympathize with our sister county; we know how to sympathize, for Alachua—yes, dear old Alachua—has passed through hell's flint mills heretofore; and her saloons has never paid one-tenth of their cost to the county. God pity Bradford. May she shake off her saloon fleas and be clean.

"Why are there more widows than widowers?" a contemporary asks. There are many reasons why. Wars make many widows and but few widowers; drink makes thousands of widows, and almost no widowers; and then, when a man becomes a widower he can generally marry again if he wishes to, and he usually does, while many widows are left in such awful conditions as a result of the lifetime cursedness of their departed husbands, that they are more likely to become objects of charity, than successful candidates for a second marriage.

There are several applicants for the Jacksonville city attorney's office, which is soon to be made vacant by the resignation of Hon. J. M. Barrs, the present incumbent, who is preparing to go to Congress. If the successor of Barrs does as well as he has done the people of Jacksonville will have just cause to be proud of the new city attorney. Barrs has been a good one.

Hon. Jas. E. Broome, leading candidate for Secretary of State, spent yesterday in the city. Today Mr. Broome will transact business in High Springs, and participate in the political speaking there tonight. He is well pleased with the encouragement he is receiving wherever he goes.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and every individual has more or less to be thankful for. Let every man give thanks on that day to the author of every good and perfect gift. The giving of thanks should not be a mere matter of form but the desire should be honest and the act real.

Jno. D. Rockefeller is said to be dissatisfied because the late arrival in his home is a girl, but kicking about it won't do any good now, it's too late. It will probably teach the multi-millionaire, however, that even the very rich can not always have orders filled just to suit them.

And now comes the editor of the DeLand Weekly News, and virtually agrees with the Jasper Weekly News, that the officials of Alachua county ought to be lynched. Great is Codrington & Whitfield of the News and News.

When a newspaper editor desires to publish in his paper an article or paragraph taken from an exchange, and don't want to let his readers know what paper he got it from, the proper way for him to do is to publish it not.

"Hon. J. N. C. Stockton," says the Monticello News, "will carry Jefferson county by an overwhelming majority. He makes the right sort of enemies for us Democrats."

Another editor to the front. Thos. J. Appleyard, editor of the Lake City Index, has announced himself a candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

If Florida candidates were all rich they would probably go to work and have some hard roads constructed—they certainly need them.

The little town of Brooksville has a larger number of candidates to the number of people there, than any other town in the State.

Why is there so much delay about beginning work on the government building? Will some one in a position to know tell us?

There are but few towns the size of Gainesville that has as many prosperous fraternal orders as are found in Gainesville.

None of the Senatorial candidates have yet spoken in Gainesville, and many of our people would like to hear them.

Mr. Sheets has not, thus far worried Mr. Holloway like some predicted he would.
